World Trade Club of Indiana 2010 Global Business Person of the Year

Who is making a significant contribution to the promotion and development of global trade in Indiana?

Since 1999, the World Trade Club of Indiana has honored an individual with the Global Business Person of the Year Award. This award has been provided to an individual who has made a significant contribution to the promotion and development of global trade in Indiana. Nominations will be accepted until Friday, November 6th.

The Award is presented in January of each year. The Nominating Committee, made up of the past presidents of the World Trade Club of Indiana, is now considering nominees for this year's award. If you believe someone deserves this recognition, then please complete this form, providing us with details about how your nominee meets the spirit and ideals of the award. Suggestions may be anonymous, but we encourage you to include your name and phone number in case the Nominating Committee would like to contact you for further information.

This form is also available on our website at www.wtcin.net
